PASTORAL REFLECTION: RETURNING HOME

"Though I scattered them among the nations, yet in far countries they shall remember me, and with their children they shall live and return. (Zechariah 10:9)

Our Daily Bread: Our Daily Bread Wednesday November 11, 2020
Read: Zechariah 10:6-12

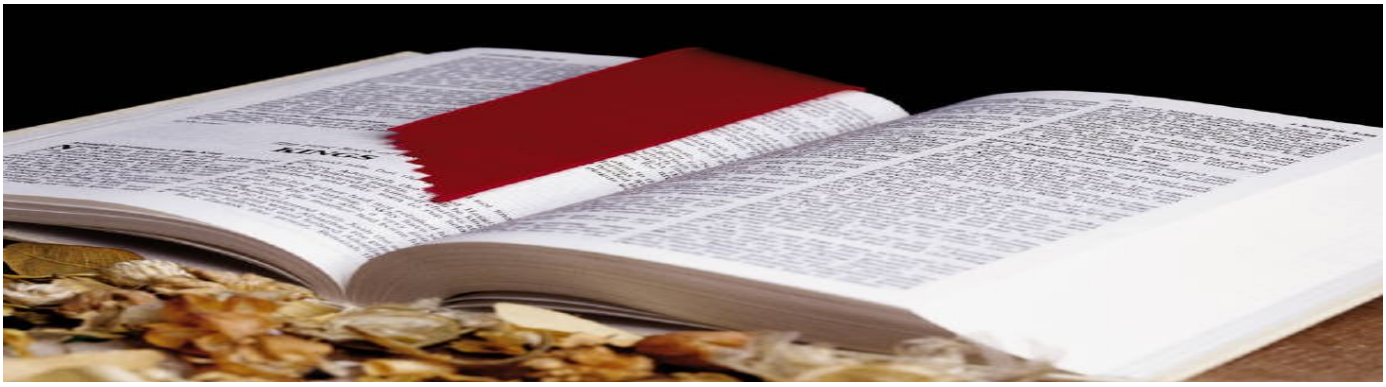
Walter Dixon had five days to honeymoon before he shipped off to the Korean War. Less than a year later, troops found Dixon's jacket on the battlefield, with letters from his wife stuffed in the pockets. Military officials informed his young wife that her husband had been killed in action. Actually, Dixon was alive and spent the next 2.5 years as a POW. Every waking hour, he plotted to get home. Dixon escaped five times but was always recaptured. Finally, he was set free. You can imagine the shock when he returned home!

God's people knew what it was to be captured, moved far away, and to long for home. Due to their rebellion against God, they were exiles. They woke each morning yearning to return, but they had no way to rescue themselves. Thankfully, God promised He'd not forgotten them. "I will restore them because I have compassion on them." (Zechariah 10:6). He would meet the people's relentless ache for home, not because of their perseverance, but because of His mercy: "I will signal for them...and they will return" (Zechariah 10:9-9).

Our sense of exile may come because of our bad decisions or because of hardships beyond our control. Either way, God hasn't forgotten us. He knows our desire and will call to us. And if we'll answer, we'll find ourselves returning to Him—returning home . WINN COLLIER

Where do you sense exile in your life? How are you hearing God calling you, showing you how to return home?

God, I feel far away from You. I know You're near, but I feel so distant.
Would you help me to hear Your call? Would You bring me home?



RESPONSIVE READING: "The Lord's Supper" 1 Corinthians 11:23-34

PASTOR: For I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, That the Lord Jesus the same night in which he was betrayed took bread:

CONGREGATION: And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me.

PASTOR: After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me.

CONGREGATION: For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do show the Lord's death till he come.

PASTOR: Wherefore whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.

CONGREGATION: But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup.

PASTOR: For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body.

CONGREGATION: For this cause many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep.

PASTOR: For if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged.

CONGREGATION: But when we are judged, we are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world.

PASTOR: Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, tarry one for another.

ALL: And if any man hunger, let him eat at home; that ye come not together unto condemnation. And the rest will I set in order when I come.

THE CHURCH COVENANT

"And they entered into a Covenant to seek the Lord God of their Fathers with all their heart and with all their soul"
II Chronicles 15:12.

PASTOR: What common experience leads us into spiritual fellowship and covenant relations with God and one another?

CONGREGATION: Having been led, as we believe, by the Spirit of God, to receive the Lord Jesus Christ as our Saviour, and on the profession of our faith, having been baptized in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost, we do now, in the presence of God, Angels, and this assembly most solemnly and joyfully enter into covenant with one another, as one body in Christ.

PASTOR: By what pledge do we turn from the ways of the world?

CONGREGATION: We promise by the aid of the Holy Spirit to forsake the paths of sin, and to walk in the ways of holiness all the days of our lives.

PASTOR: What are some of our privileges and duties in this, our own Church?

CONGREGATION: With this view, we engage to strive for the advancement of this church in knowledge, holiness, and comfort; to promote its prosperity and spirituality, to sustain its worship, ordinances, discipline and doctrines.

PASTOR: What vows do we gladly make as stewards of that which God has entrusted to us?

CONGREGATION: To contribute, cheerfully and regularly to the support of the ministry, the expenses of the Church, the relief of the poor, and the spread of the Gospel and foster Christian Education and missions throughout all nations.

PASTOR: For the sake of our home and loved ones, what tasks do we humbly assume?

CONGREGATION: We engage to maintain family and secret devotions, to religiously educate our children; to seek the salvation of our kindred and acquaintances.

PASTOR: For the sake of the unsaved for whom Christ died, to what manner of life and conversation are we solemnly pledged?

CONGREGATION: To walk circumspectly in the world; to be just in our dealings; faithful in our engagements, and exemplary in our deportment; to avoid all tattling, backbiting, excessive anger; to abstain from the sale and use of intoxicating liquors as a beverage and to be zealous in our efforts to advance the kingdom of our Saviour.

PASTOR: Since One is our Master, even Christ and all we are brethren, by what fraternal ministries are we to strengthen each other and adorn the teachings of our Lord and Saviour?

CONGREGATION: We further engage to watch over one another in brotherly love and watchfulness; giving and receiving admonition with meekness and affection; to remember each other in prayer; to aid each other in sickness and distress; to cultivate Christian sympathy in feeling and courtesy in speech; to be slow to take offense, but always ready for reconciliation, and mindful of the rule of our Saviour, to secure it without delay.

PASTOR: For the good of our own spiritual development, and for the best interest of the Master's kingdom, what do we promise to do if we move beyond the reach of this Church?

CONGREGATION: We moreover engage that when we remove from this place we will, as soon as possible, unite with some other church of this faith, where we can carry out the spirit of this covenant and the principles of God's word.

ALL: Humbly confessing our past sins, we pray for grace and strength to keep these, our holy vows, for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen
